This event will be led by LYO students & adult leaders from churches in our conference.

In addition to the student leaders, there will be at least one awake adult overnight and an adult with every small group whenever the group is out in the community. LYO students will not transport children or themselves to any location as part of this event. There will be an on-call nurse available.

Parents are encouraged to participate in this event. We especially need help with transportation during the community service projects on Saturday from 10 AM to 2 P.M. & transporting the group to LHV from 2-4:30.

The closing dinner on Saturday night is for participants only - Families are encouraged to come at 6:00 P.M. on Saturday for the closing program.

Reminder: Shawn Smith will be our featured musician and speaker. He earns his living as a professional Christian musician. Shawn will have CDs, shirts and songbooks on sale following the closing program.
